Patient Champion Program

The Patient Champion Program is a unique financial partnership to support innovative research in areas of musculoskeletal health.

Did you know?

The Orthopaedic Research Foundation, Inc. (ORF) is one of the largest, not-for-profit, orthopaedic research and educational organizations in the Midwest. The ORF is consistently sought out by leading academic institutions and public and private companies to conduct research in areas such as cartilage repair, biotech, arthritis, joint replacements, sports medicine, spine care and traumatic injuries. As we enter a new era of healthcare and product innovation, the ORF is uniquely positioned to offer breakthroughs in orthopaedic care to Indiana residents.

"My life has been wonderful as I can now walk miles at a time and play with my grandchildren without the agonizing pain."
